Smooth paddling on Boiling Hole Lake.

PADDLE TIME

Staff members and volunteers at Parrot Cay by Como in the Turks and Caicos have spent the last five years clearing an overgrown waterway that leads from the 72-room resort's dock to secluded inland Boiling Hole Lake. The result: a new two-and-a-half-mile, mangrove-lined kayak and paddleboard trail that gives guests access to the private island's diverse bird and marine life. Doubles from $550, including breakfast daily and a $100 resort credit. Guided kayak or paddleboard tour from $95 per person.

Bond, Beach Bond

Licence to lounge: A beach hut at GoldenEye.

The addition of 26 new beach huts has turned GoldenEye resort – the former estate of James Bond creator Ian Fleming – from Jamaican hideaway into full-fledged island playground. The one- and two-bedroom octagonal huts, trimmed in white linens and African fabrics, embrace the tropical climate with verandas, high ceilings that help circulate air, and bamboo-enclosed outdoor showers. The 45-room resort's new pool, bar, and grill specializing in Jamaican jerk barbecue further encourage barefoot living. Beach huts from $400, including breakfast daily and a $100 resort credit. Beach cottages from $620.
